CODE OF CONDUCT

COACHES/JUDGES/VOLUNTEERS

At Evoke, we rely on the professionalism and dedication of our coaches, judges, and volunteers to create a safe and supportive environment for our gymnasts. This Code of Conduct outlines how you can help maintain these standards.

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS

- Be familiar with British Gymnastics policies and keep your qualifications up to date.
- Maintain high standards of behaviour and appearance – set the example for others.
- Ensure that sessions are appropriate for the gymnasts' age, ability, and experience.
- Create a welcoming and inclusive environment where all gymnasts feel valued.
- Encourage teamwork and positive sportsmanship.
- Keep communication clear, positive, and professional.
- Respect the privacy of all members and keep personal information confidential.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

- Ensure that the gym and equipment are safe and suitable for use.
- Monitor gymnasts' health and well-being during training.
- Report any accidents, injuries, or unsafe behaviour immediately.
- Follow all safeguarding policies to protect the welfare of gymnasts.

BEHAVIOUR AND CONDUCT

- Be a positive role model for gymnasts and fellow coaches.
- Encourage gymnasts to value their effort and progress rather than focusing solely on results.
- Treat all gymnasts fairly and respectfully, regardless of their background or ability.
- Avoid any inappropriate relationships with gymnasts or their families.

SOCIAL MEDIA AND COMMUNICATION

- Keep personal and professional social media separate.
- Do not post or share photos or videos of gymnasts without consent.
- Keep online communication respectful and professional.
